

APERTURE RESEARCH WORKS

Enhanced Public-Source Due Diligence

Indicative fee: $5,000 to $10,000

Document status	PROFESSIONAL RESEARCH OUTPUT
Edition	Clean text-and-evidence edition
Visual policy	Decorative and non-essential visual elements removed
Prepared by	Paul Hattingh and Aperture Research Works
Contact	info@apertureforensic.com

Reality before reliance. Verification before interpretation.

This edition removes decorative maps, filler diagrams and other non-essential visual treatment. It retains the report as a structured, inspectable research output centred on findings, evidence, limitations, source references and decision use.

Enhanced Public-Source Due Diligence

Indicative fee: $5,000 to $10,000

When to use it

Ownership, management, litigation, regulatory history, links, contradictions and reputation.

What is included

Due-diligence report, chronology, red flags, source register, gaps and limitations.

What is not included

No guaranteed outcome, regulated legal or investment advice, licensed private investigation, forensic accounting certification, digital forensics, expert testimony or specialist testing unless separately provided by a qualified third party.

Next step

Submit an initial written enquiry at apertureforensic.com. No substantive research begins until scope, output, timing, fee and written terms are agreed.

info@apertureforensic.com | DOI 10.5281/zenodo.17864765